

Grand Union Folk Club

Presents

Belshazzar's Feast

Monday 17th May 2021

At

The Y Theatre

East Street, Leicester, LE1 6EY

8.00 pm

One of the best-loved duos in folk music, previous BBC Folk Awards Best Duo nominees Belshazzar's Feast start with traditional folk music, add a touch of classical and jazz, throw in a bit of pop and music hall, and top it off with a wry humour that has won them fans across the world. Paul Sartin (of Bellowhead and Faustus) and Paul Hutchinson (of Pagoda Project) have together wowed audiences with their virtuoso musicianship, eclectic and eccentric mix of songs and tunes and their on-stage banter, guaranteed to send audiences home with smiles on their faces.

Please note: This will be socially distanced event that will be fully compliant with Government guidelines in respect of Health and Safety and COVID-19 as applicable on the date of the concert.

'Their music is breathtaking and wickedly inventive and the between-tunes interchange as intelligent and hilarious as the music.' - Mike Harding.

'Few can match this duo in concert for entertainment and great music'

- The Independent

'Amidst the jesting and hilarity, they sit as fine an example of traditional English folk music as you're likely to hear.' - Mike Ainscoe, Bright Young Folk
